Subject. Communications dated July 29, 1938 from Chilean Consulate General regarding Maximo RiesenberG Ginzburg.

Made by D.P.S. Pavloff

Forwarded by

C. Crawford D.D.

Enquiries show that Maximo RIESENBERG GINZBURG arrived in Shanghai in March 1936 and in July of the same year he obtained employment with the Swiss firm Liebermann Waelch & Co. where he remained until the day of his departure from Shanghai. He was employed in the capacity of a book-keeper and accountant with salary of $250.00 per mensem. After his departure and after the books of the above firm were checked by the chartered accountant it was revealed that during his course of employment in the firm he misappropriated the total sum of $1,350.00.

And it was also revealed that before leaving Shanghai he borrowed $475.00 from the firms' compradore.

According to the French Police Boarding House Section, the person in question had been in Shanghai on a short visit between 1/11/31 and 3/12/32 on which date he left for Paris, France. During that visit he resided at 698, Route Bourgeat. During the last four months of his stay in Shanghai he resided at a private Boarding House at 1212/8 Avenue Joffre at that time owned by Mrs. N. Kokoreff, employee of Cohen Ltd. Henry H. at 133, Yuen Ming Yuen Road. Mrs. N. Kokoreff when approached spoke favourably of the person in question saying that he was a good tenant, always paying his rent in advance but could not give any information as to his other activities.

Shanghai, July 14th, 1937.

F.W. Gerrard, Esquire,
Commissioner of Police,
S.M.C. Police,
Shanghai.

Sir,

A representative of the Swiss firm LIEBERMAN WAELCHLI & Co. called at this Consulate yesterday and asked me if I knew the whereabouts of a Chilean subject by the name of Maximo RIESENBERG Ginzburg who for some time was employed by the above-mentioned firm as accountant. Riesenbergs asked for a ten days leave which was granted him and was to leave for Harbin on the night of June 23rd by train. Since that date, they have been without news from him.

I have called the Shanghai Passport Examination Office and all the Consulates, but it seems that nowhere anyone by the name of Riesenbergs has applied for a visa.

On the 5th of June, Riesenbergs came to this Consulate to renew his passport. He was born in Suwalki, Poland, on December 17, 1902, worked in Palestine, in Germany and in France. This is proved by papers I have in this Consulate and which are certificates given by the various firms for which he worked. He went to Chile where he applied for a Chilean citizenship and having shown all necessary and valid documents, he was granted the Chilean nationality by Decree No. 3643 of September 30, 1931. He left Chile in the beginning of the year 1936, went to New-York and from there came to China where he arrived sometime in March 1936.

These are all the informations I have regarding Riesenbergs. He last stayed in Shanghai at a boarding house, located at No 1212 Avenue Joffre.

I would very much appreciate if you could give me the informations you might possess regarding Riesenbergs. Something might have happened to him and I am very much interested in knowing what has become of him.

Thanking you in advance,
I remain, Sir,
Yours very sincerely,

Acknowledged by Sir
